Pg 01 - Approval of the Minutes of the Regular Meeting of September 23, 2008

DIRECTORS REPORT

COMMITTEE REPORTS

ORAL COMMUNICATIONS AND OTHER MATTERS

Each person wishing to speak before the Planning Commission on any matter shall approach the Commission, give name and address, and limit address to three (3) minutes. State law generally precludes the Planning Commission from discussing or acting upon any topic initially presented during oral communication. Your information may be received, placed on the next agenda, or referred to the appropriate City staff.

a. NON-AGENDA ITEMS:

b. LISTED AGENDA ITEMS: Anyone may present their comments at this time, or when the item is taken up by the Planning Commission in its normal sequence on this agenda, but not at both times.

The Commission would like to hear everything you have to say on an agenda item. If you are unable to wait until the item is taken up in its normal sequence on the agenda rather than under "Oral Communications," you will have an opportunity to speak when the Chairperson indicates. This usually occurs after a brief staff report followed by testimony from the applicant (if applicable). After you and others in the audience have spoken and Commission discussion has been completed, you may still ask the Chairperson to be allowed to speak again if you have new pertinent questions or information. The Commission encourages brief, non-repetitive testimony in order to conduct a fair and efficient meeting. Your participation is welcomed.
