Cultural Arts Commission Seeks Community Volunteers

CORONADO, CA (March 15, 2012) – Each of the seven members of Coronado’s new Cultural Arts Commission has agreed to chair a “working committee,” aimed at involving the greater Coronado community in promoting and appreciating various aspects of the arts in our City. The following committees will meet informally and are open to interested individuals and groups willing to commit their time and energy.

PUBLIC ART: Contact Jeff Tyler, Chair. jefftyler@msn.com (619) 435-5333. This is the art that belongs to all of us! A kickoff meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, March 27, 8:30-10 a.m. in the Crown Conference Room at Coronado City Hall.

ARTS EDUCATION: Contact Kris McKlung, Chair. kmclung@gmail.com (619) 435-4271. Actor, teacher, director, founder of our acclaimed CoSA. Kris’s committee will bring together Coronado’s wide variety of arts education programs in one glorious spirit of collaboration.

VISUAL AND LITERARY ARTS: Contact Doris Besikof, Chair. dorisbesikof@aol.com. (619) 575-8317. Calling all local artists, gallery owners and writers, from emerging to professional: Doris wants to hear from you!

PERFORMING ARTS: Contact Steve Baker, Chair. smbaker5@gmail.com. (619)737-7519. Join Steve’s dynamic committee of performing arts groups and individuals. Lots of ideas (and talent) found here!

ARTS ADVOCACY: Contact Healy Henderson, Chair. islandviolin@hotmail.com. (619) 235-8491. You can assist Healy in her survey of all the businesses and arts organizations to determine the economic impact the arts have in our community. (You’ll be amazed.)

MEDIA: Contact Heidi Wilson, Chair. CoronadoClassics@gmail.com. (619) 435-1108. Some ideas: A website, a calendar with links, social media presence. The operative word here: collaborate.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND FILM: Contact Doug St. Denis, Chair. dstdenis@san.rr.com. (619) 435-0413. Filming in Coronado? Location, location, location. How do we make it happen without disrupting our citizens? And what about a Coronado Film Festival? Let’s talk about it, and more. The kickoff meeting will be announced.
