Video instructions will be posted on the library's Facebook and Youtube on the date listed below. Kits will be available to pick up through the library's curbside service two days before the video airs.

Sept. 9 Rubberband Helicopters

Sept. 23 Canvas Art

Arts in Education Week: Instagram Photo Contest

Sept. 13-19

Submit a photo that embodies the theme "the joy of reading" for our Instagram photo contest! To play, use the hashtag #joyofreadingcpl and tag the library's Instagram account, @nadolibraryteens. The winner will receive a prize and their photo will be reposted on the library's account!

Acting with Andrea

Friday, Sept. 18 @ 4p.m.

Explore character development by integrating animal movement and characteristics in a 45-minute workshop led by an experienced theater instructor. Geared to ages 9-13. Space is limited. Email agonzales@coronado.ca.us to register.

Virtual Volunteer Opportunities

Are you interested in earning volunteer hours? All 6th-12th graders are encouraged to sign up for the library's virtual volunteers! Opportunities to earn hours include book buddies, tech tutors, citizen science projects, and more! Visit the library website or email tdavies@coronado.ca.us for an application!

College Admissions & COVID-19

Tuesday, Sept. 15 @ 6p.m.

Are you a rising senior who is unsure about the college admission process? A parent of a teen who is applying this year? College Admissions Expert Greg Kaplan will be speaking on how the admissions process has changed and strategies to set yourself up for success! All teens and their parents are invited to attend this virtual event!

To register and receive the zoom link for this program, email tdavies@coronado.ca.us

Postcard to your Politician Monday, Sept. 21-ongoing

Your voice matters, even if you cannot vote in the upcoming election. Send a postcard to your politician about an issue that matters to you. Tell your representative what you would like to see them doing; they work to represent YOU! Pick up a postcard kit at the library, it will have everything you need to send a note to your representative. While supplies last.
