

Touring the Louvre & the Prado Museums

Explore the world-renowned Musée du Louvre in Paris and Museo del Prado in Madrid. Artist and Lecturer, Amanda Schaffer will discuss and compare the history, architecture, and highlights of these iconic museums.

Friday, January 12

1-2:30pm in the Winn Room

-Which museum originated as a medieval fortress?

-Which museum houses a well-known sculpture from antiquity that was found in the ocean?

-What famous painting was vandalized with acid?

-What artist included an image of himself in his painted masterpiece?

Find out how these museums' treasures survived WWII and what additions to the museums have been made in recent years.

Amanda Schaffer is a lecturer with the Osher Institute at San Diego State University. She teaches art classes and presents lectures on art history related topics, including art and architecture along the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage trail in northern Spain. She teaches through Oasis San Diego presenting on art and history related topics. A graduate of Pepperdine University, Amanda earned her Bachelor's in Illustration, an M.F.A. in Visual Arts through Vermont College of Fine Arts as well as M.A. in Art & Religion

640 Orange Avenue
Coronado, CA 92118
619-522-7390

Made possible by

